

Once upon a time in a colorful forest, there lived a tiny mouse named Milo. One sunny day, Milo decided to throw a surprise picnic for his friends. He gathered yummy berries, nuts, and sweet honey. He spread a little blanket under the shade of a tall oak tree.

One by one, his friends arrived — a bouncy rabbit, a cheerful squirrel, and a giggly frog. They played games, laughed, and shared delicious treats. As the sun set, they all thanked Milo for the wonderful day. With happy hearts, they promised to have a picnic every season, and they all scampered home, already looking forward to the next one.
